

Machine Learning Coding Test

Problem Statement:

Here is the link to the problem statement. Please follow the guidelines as stated below and on the link for the correct submissions.

Guidelines:

1. Do not use public discussed solutions or older solutions by former participants. This will lead to an immediate disqualification.
2. No kind of plagiarism will be tolerated.
3. Please have a detailed look at the output requirements and make sure you submit all of them.

Submission Docs:

1. Final Script or github repo with all the relevant codes.
2. Notebook with all the feature engineering transformations and EDA which has been done on this data which led to arrive at the feature engineering transformations.
3. Modelling scripts/notebooks highlighting the models experimented with in this journey.
4. A 1-page approach note explaining your entire thought process and experimentation steps undertaken in this hacking process.
5. Share a screenshot of the best rank achieved along with the score on the leaderboard.